Celebration is perhaps the most common denominator that we have, crossing all barriers of race, religion, ethnicity, age, politics, economics, education and geography. We celebrate birth, life and death, discovery, victory, and remembrance; history, new beginnings, and patriotism; food, shelter, and family; where we come from, who we are, and what we believe; careers, achievements, and milestones; music, agriculture, sports, military prowess, children, love, hope, community, beauty, talent and peace on earth. The need to celebrate seems inherent in everything we do and touches virtually every life on the planet.

Over time, those celebrations have changed. From often informal affairs, to spectacular productions requiring new sets of skills, experience, creativity, tools, financing, planning and leadership. Celebration itself has evolved into a business and an industry, with professional standards and expectations, academic programs and educational certifications, and new demands and challenges every day.

Today’s special events industry, globally, is estimated to include some 4 to 5 million regularly re-occurring events (including community festivals, parades, fairs, air shows, sporting events, carnivals, car shows, art shows, flower shows, corporate events, balloon rallies, First Nights, holiday events and more) large enough to require municipal support services, with an estimated combined economic impact that, if calculable, would be in the trillions of dollars, with combined attendances that touch virtually every life on the planet several times over.

Festivals and events are among the most successful and important tools available to communities, cities, states, regions, and countries to increase tourism, create powerful and memorable brands, and imaging opportunities, encourage positive media coverage, effect economic impact, and enhance the quality of life for all those who live there.

Festivals and events are created, managed and represented by a global network that includes many of the most creative and capable professionals in the world. A network connected by the International Festivals & Events Association (IFEA World). IFEA - A World of Celebrations. A World of Opportunity. A Global Network for Success.

For as long as anyone can remember, people have celebrated. The IFEA has worked very hard over the years to continue raising the level of professionalism in our industry; along with the level of recognition and awareness for the industry and those who work in it by the media and the general public. Through the provision of scholarships, a Certified Festival & Event Executive (CFEE) Program, the funding of top quality speakers, educational publications, technology and digital training services, translation services and more, the IFEA Foundation is helping the IFEA to achieve their vision of a globally united industry and an association that supports and enables festival and event professionals around the world. The IFEA Foundation is an independent 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization. Donations to the foundation may be tax-deductible in the United States.

The IFEA Foundation is an independent 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization. Donations to the foundation may be tax-deductible in the United States.

We invite you to get involved in the IFEA Foundation’s important efforts to support the continued growth and professionalism of this unique industry.

• IFEA Foundation Auction Event – A fun-filled all-inclusive Auction Party held during the IFEA’s Annual Convention & Expo. Besides being an anticipated centerpiece for fun and networking, this evening also provides the Foundation’s largest annual income source through generous donations and bidding on one-of-a-kind, untouchable auction packages by Convention attendees. Includes travel packages, products, services, VIP Event Experience opportunities and much more.

• IFEA Legacy Scholarships – The IFEA Foundation helps to support the mission and vision of the IFEA by providing financial support allowing students, new professionals and financially challenged events the opportunity to attend the annual IFEA Convention & Expo. Over the years, selected individuals and/or groups of individuals have chosen to honor a professional peer for their outstanding dedication to our industry; to pay lasting tribute to a loved one or professional colleague who have passed away; or to insure the continued professional growth of those serving our industry in their region of the world or professional niche of our industry through an IFEA Foundation Legacy Scholarship. It is a special way to connect tomorrow’s professionals with those who have paved the way for us all.

• Fund for the Future – Recognizing the importance of the role that we play, the IFEA World and IFEA Foundation Boards, working together, have chosen to use the current market environment and changing times as an opportunity to strengthen our own programs and to ensure that the IFEA will continue to lead, serve and support our industry, especially when it is in need, for many years to come. That includes building protections against current and future economic realities and keeping pace with new technologies that will allow us to expand our services and programming reach around the world.

The “Fund for the Future” is a joint fund raising campaign of the IFEA Foundation and IFEA World Board of Directors with the goal being to raise a total of $500,000.

What can the IFEA provide YOU?

Growing and responding in tandem with the changing and dynamic global industry that they represent, the IFEA has distinguished itself as the Premier Association Supporting and Enabling Festival & Event Professionals Worldwide. While respectively much younger than the industry itself, the IFEA celebrates 63 years of event leadership in 2018. From small but inspired beginnings to simply sharing ideas, answers and opportunities, the IFEA today, in partnership with global affiliates under the umbrella of IFEA Africa, IFEA Asia, IFEA Australia/New Zealand, IFEA Europe, IFEA Latin America, IFEA Middle East (MENASA) and IFEA North America, shares a larger vision for “A Globally United Industry that Touches Lives in a Positive Way Through Celebration” by offering the most complete source of ideas, resources, information, education and networking for festivals & event professionals worldwide.

With a target audience that includes all those who produce and support quality celebrations for the benefit of their respective communities, the IFEA’s primary focus is identifying and providing access to the professional resources and networks that will, as stated in our mission, inspire and enable those in our industry to realize their dreams, build community and sustain success through celebration.

The IFEA exists to serve the needs of our entire industry, all those who share our core values of excellence & quality, the sharing of experience, knowledge, creativity and best practices; and the importance of “community” building, both locally and globally. Our success lies in the success of those we serve through professional education, programming, products and resources, networking and representation.

Members of the IFEA include festivals and events large and small, industry icons and brand new events, event producers and consultants, municipalities and government agencies, CVBs and Chambers of Commerce; corporate events, the public and private sectors; parks & recreation departments; and the sponsors, academia’s and suppliers who support them all. They are a self-selected group of industry leading professionals and organizations who continue to set and raise the bar for themselves and everyone in our industry with regard to creativity, quality, professionalism, experience, and success. They understand, as did our founders, the enormous value and power created through an international network of professional peers, for the purpose of sharing ideas and solutions that can be translated into tangible benefits for communities and individuals around the world. While representing only a part of the festivals and events industry as a whole, they have learned the value of active and continued involvement with their professional peers at the highest levels and have set themselves apart from the pack. They represent the very best of our industry brand and, through their involvement, the IFEA is able to build a stronger foundation for our common industry.

The IFEA is headquartered in Boise, Idaho, in the northwestern United States. The organization’s offices are located in the historic Boise Train Depot.
Behind the scenes of the IFEA is a dedicated, creative and event-experienced staff, ready to help provide the answers, guidance, information, resources, contacts, programming, benefits, and support that you need to be successful.

The IFEA is a 501(c)(6) not-for-profit organization that is overseen by an independent, international Board of Directors. Globally, we are represented by affiliate regional organizations, each with their own boards and staff representatives. Global regions are then often further broken down by affiliated partners and/or ambassadors in individual regions, countries, states, provinces and territories. IFEA World is supported and advised in its efforts by the IFEA Global Roundtable Council, a body of industry leaders from all parts of the world. The IFEA President & CEO also enjoys the support and advice of the IFEA President’s Council, who represent a broad cross-section of experts from within and outside of our industry. A complete list of the IFEA Staff, Board of Directors, Global Roundtable Council, President’s Council and Global Affiliates can be found at www.ifea.com.

Growing and responding in tandem with the changing and dynamic global industry that they represent, the IFEA has distinguished itself as The Premier Association Supporting and Enabling Festival & Event Professionals Worldwide. While respectively much younger than the industry itself, the IFEA celebrates 63 years of event leadership in 2018. From small but inspired beginnings to simply sharing ideas, answers and opportunities, the IFEA today, in partnership with global affiliates under the umbrellas of IFEA Africa, IFEA Asia, IFEA Australia/New Zealand, IFEA Europe, IFEA Latin America, IFEA Middle East (MENASA) and IFEA North America, shares a larger vision for “A Globally United Industry that Touches Lives in a Positive Way Through Celebration” by offering the most complete source of ideas, resources, information, education and networking for festivals & event professionals worldwide.

With a target audience that includes all those who produce and support quality celebrations for the benefit of their respective “communities,” the IFEA’s primary focus is identifying and providing access to the professional resources and networks that will, as stated in our mission, inspire and enable those in our industry to realize their dreams, build community and sustain success through celebration.

The IFEA exists to serve the needs of our entire industry, all those who share our core values of excellence & quality, the sharing of experience, knowledge, creativity and best practices; and the importance of “community” building, both locally and globally. Our success lies in the success of those we serve through professional education, programming, products and resources, networking and representation.

Members of the IFEA include festivals and events large and small, industry icons and brand new events, event producers and consultants, municipalities and government agencies, CVBs and Chambers of Commerce; corporate events, the public and private sectors; parks & recreation departments; and the sponsors, academia’s and suppliers who support them all. They are a self-selected group of industry leaders; professionals and organizations who continue to set and raise the bar for themselves and everyone in our industry with regard to creativity, quality, professionalism, experience, and success. They understand, as did our founders, the enormous value and power created through an international network of professional peers, for the purpose of sharing ideas and solutions that can be translated into tangible benefits for communities and individuals around the world. While representing only a part of the festivals and events industry as a whole, they have learned the value of active and continued involvement with their professional peers at the highest levels and have set themselves apart from the pack. They represent the very best of our industry brand and, through their involvement, the IFEA is able to build a stronger foundation for our common industry.

The IFEA is headquartered in Boise, Idaho, in the northwestern United States. The organization’s offices are located in the historic Boise Train Depot.
For as long as anyone can remember, people have celebrated. Celebration itself is perhaps the most common denominator that we have, crossing all barriers of race, religion, ethnicity, age, politics, economics, education and geography. We celebrate birth, life and death, discovery, victory, and remembrance; history, new beginnings, and patriotism; food, shelter, and family; where we come from, who we are, and what we believe; careers, achievements, and milestones; music, agriculture, sports, military prowess, children, love, hopes, community, beauty, talent and peace on earth. The need to celebrate seems inherent in everything we do and touches virtually every life on the planet.

Over time, those celebrations have changed. From often informal affairs, to spectacular productions requiring new sets of skills, experience, creativity, tools, financing, planning and leadership. Celebration itself has evolved into a business and an industry, with professional standards and expectations, academic programs and educational certifications, and new demands and challenges every day.

Today’s special events industry, globally, is estimated to include some 4 to 5 million regularly re-occurring events (including community festivals, parades, fairs, air shows, sporting events, carnivals, car shows, art shows, flower shows, corporate events, balloon rallies, First Nights, holiday events and more) large enough to require municipal support services, with an estimated combined economic impact that, if calculable, would be in the trillions of dollars, with combined attendances that touch virtually every life on the planet several times over.

Festivals and events are among the most successful and important tools available to communities, cities, states, regions, and countries to increase tourism, create powerful and memorable branding and imaging opportunities, encourage positive media coverage, effect economic impact, and enhance the quality of life for all those who live there.

Festivals and events are created, managed and represented by a global network that includes many of the most creative and capable professionals in the world. A network connected by the International Festivals & Events Association (IFEA World) IFEA – A World of Celebrations. A World of Opportunity. A Global Network for Success.

The IFEA Educational Foundation was formed in 1993 with a mission of ensuring that the IFEA has resources to fulfill its own educational mission. The IFEA has worked very hard over the years to continue raising the level of professionalism in our industry, along with the level of recognition and awareness for the industry and those who work in it by the media and the general public. Through the provision of scholarships, a Certified Festival & Event Executive (CFEE) Program, the funding of top quality speakers, educational publications, technology and digital training services, translation services and more, the IFEA Foundation is helping the IFEA to achieve their vision of a globally united industry and an association that supports and enables festival and event professionals around the world. The IFEA Foundation is an independent 501 (c)3 not-for-profit organization. Donations to the foundation may be tax-deductible in the United States.

We invite you to get involved in the IFEA Foundation’s important efforts to support the continued growth and professionalism of this unique industry.

• IFEA Foundation Auction Event – A fun-filled all-inclusive Auction Party held during the IFEA’s Annual Convention & Expo. Besides being an anticipated centerpiece for fun and networking, this evening also provides the Foundation’s largest annual income source through generous donations and bidding on one-of-a-kind, untouchable auction packages by Convention attendees. Includes travel packages, products, services, VIP Event Experience opportunities and much more.

• IFEA Legacy Scholarships – The IFEA Foundation helps to support the mission and vision of the IFEA by providing financial support allowing students, new professionals and financially challenged events the opportunity to attend the annual IFEA Convention & Expo. Over the years, selected individuals and/or groups of individuals have chosen to honor a professional peer for their outstanding dedication to our industry; to pay lasting tribute to a loved one or professional colleague who have passed away; or to insure the continued professional growth of those serving our industry in their region of the world or professional niche of our industry through an IFEA Foundation Legacy Scholarship. It is a special way to connect tomorrow’s professionals with those who have paved the way for us all.

• Fund for the Future – Recognizing the importance of the role that we play, the IFEA World and IFEA Foundation Boards, working together, have chosen to use the current market environment and changing times as an opportunity to strengthen our own programs and to ensure that the IFEA will continue to lead, serve and support our industry, especially when it is in need, for many years to come. That includes building protections against current and future economic realities and keeping pace with new technologies that will allow us to expand our services and programming reach around the world.

The “Fund for the Future” is a joint fund raising campaign of the IFEA Foundation and IFEA World Board of Directors with the goal being to raise a total of $500,000.
